The Pauline Lantz Smith Bursary for students pursuing Adult Education, Vocational or Other Training

Mrs. Pauline Lantz Smith is a Nova Scotia native and has made her home in Hemmingford since 1975. She has a M.Ed. from McGill University and worked as a resource teacher for 14 years (11 of those years at Hemmingford Elementary School). Her devotion to children with diverse learning styles has inspired her to donate a sum to the CVR Educational Foundation to create this Bursary for the next 10 years.

In Mrs. Lantz Smith's words, giftedness is not always academic. Everyone has a talent or skill that they are good at. What defines talented-gifted is the willingness and desire to work at a particular skill, activity or task above and beyond the average commitment because you enjoy it and want to excel.

Criteria

Student must have the skills and ability to enter another area of schooling, i.e. Adult Educational, Vocational Training or any other course work that may apply such as Carpentry, Plumbing, Welding, Cooking, etc.

The student may have ability or talent that the school's educational program cannot provide and pursues it outside of the school environment.

Student must demonstrate; an above-average commitment to the task or skill, a desire to keep working at or learning more about it, and planning for ongoing development.

A member of the CVR Educational Foundation shall review all applications, remove all identifying marks and submit the applications to a jury for consideration. The applications will be reviewed by a jury of 3.

Mrs. Lantz Smith is one of the three evaluators.

Each year two bursaries of $500 will be presented to selected recipients during the graduation ceremony at the end of the school year.

Recipients will receive 2 equal installments (September and January) provided she/he confirms full-time attendance in the chosen program. See your Guidance Counselor or www.cvredfoundation.com/apply/ for more information on this bursary and application deadline (2nd Round).

SELF-AWARENESS QUESTIONNAIRE

The Pauline Lantz Smith Bursary

Your strengths are a mixture of talent, knowledge, skill and experience. Very few people are really aware of what their strengths are. You want to recognize what you do well and focus on what you are good at. Do not expect to be good at everything, it would not be realistic. You can quickly see where your personal strengths lie, what you may want to improve, and what is not important to you. Take your time and think about each one before scoring. Answer honestly, there is no right or wrong. We suggest that you discuss these questions with a parent or a teacher and get their help to complete this questionnaire.

	Questions	X = not good at / not interested 0 = average 1 = above average/good at/strength

3	I am good at working with tools and doing things with my hands.
4	I like to help people and people often confide in me.
5	I like to babysit or work with children because I know how to take care of them and parents trust me.
6	I like responsibility.
7	I enjoy sports and I am good at one or more of them.
8	I am methodical and pay attention to details.

Scoring:

For each question, score according to what matches your level of skill or interest, using the following legend:

0 = average
