The Anthony Faubert Memorial Bursary for students pursuing
Vocational or other training in a CULINARY PROGRAM

The Anthony Faubert Memorial Bursary was established in 2022 to honor Anthony Faubert, a 2020 graduate of CVR. Anthony had a passion for cooking and all things food-related and was pursuing his studies at the École des métiers de la restauration et du tourisme de Montréal. Each year, a 300 $ bursary will be given to a student pursuing his/her studies in a culinary program.

Criteria

Student must enter Vocational Training, ITHQ, Ecole des métiers de la restauration et du tourisme de Montréal or any other post-secondary establishment in a culinary program.

In addition to the documents listed on the next page, applicants must provide a copy of their acceptance letter in their chosen program.

A member of the CVR Educational Foundation shall review all applications, remove all identifying marks and submit the applications to a jury for consideration. The applications will be reviewed by a jury of 3.

Each year a bursary of $300 will be presented to the selected recipient during the graduation ceremony at the end of the school year.

Recipients will receive the full bursary in September provided she/he confirms full-time attendance in the chosen program. See your Guidance Counselor or www.cvredfoundation.com/apply/ for more information on this bursary and application deadline.

Selection procedures and instructions

- The CVR Educational Foundation will call for applications.
- The application procedures should clearly state that the bursary is open to all CVR students in Secondary 5 who are pursuing their studies in a culinary program.
- Application deadline is announced by CVR's Guidance Counselor and on cvredfoundation.com. Should there be an insufficient number (none or one) of applications; the deadline for applications will be extended to provide an opportunity to encourage participation.
- CVR's Guidance Counselor is available to play a role in assisting students in the application process, and in forwarding these applications to the CVR Educational Foundation.
- The applicant is responsible to complete and submit all the documents (unfolded and no staples) listed in the criteria in a large, sealed envelope addressed to: CVR Educational Foundation / The Anthony Faubert Memorial Bursary. The envelope can be given to the Guidance Counselor or brought to the CVRHS reception desk. In addition to the documents listed in the criteria, the applicant is asked to include a copy of his/her letter of acceptance in the chosen program. If the applicant has not yet received an answer at the time of submission, he/she must send it by e-mail to the CVR Ed Foundation (go to cvredfoundation.com/contact/ to upload and send your document) when received. This bursary will not be awarded without acceptance in the required program.
- The CVR Educational Foundation Coordinator reviews all applications, removes all identifying marks, prepares, and submits the applications to the jury for consideration.
- Each application is reviewed and scored by a jury of 3 members*.

  * It is expected that members excuse themselves in the case of a conflict of interest.
- Results of the evaluations are compiled, and a recipient is selected.
- The recipient is announced during the graduation ceremony at the end of the school year.
- The CVR Educational Foundation will disburse the full amount of the bursary in September to the recipient, when they provide proof of full-time studies in a post-secondary culinary program.
